REPUBLICANS GOING TO CHICAGO

The Connecticut delegation that will attend the republican national convention at Chicago will leave Union station, Hartford, by special train Saturday at 1.45 p. m., standard time (2.49 daylight time), arriving in Springfield at 2.38, standard time, and in Chicago Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

On board the train Saturday the convention delegates will hold a meeting to elect an alternate at large to take the place of Professor Hiram Bingham of Yale, who is prevented by illness from leaving.

Professor Bingham was elected by the republican national convention in March to the alternate for Speaker James C. Walsh of Greenwich, delegate at large.

The illness of Professor Bingham is said to be due to an injury resulting from an automobile accident while on the government service. He was an alternate to the national convention of 1916 also.

The "Connecticut Special" will be made up of five cars besides the locomotive, three compartment coaches, a diner and a club car. The trip will be made over the "New Haven" road to Springfield by the Boston and Albany railroad to Albany and by the New York Central (Lake Shore) railroad from there to Chicago by way of Buffalo and Cleveland.

The committee on transportation and arrangements has made public the list of those for whom reservations have been made for the Connecticut party. The list follows:

REPUBLICANS GOING TO CHICAGO

Attenances.
R. Leland Keeney, Somers; William H. Heald, Stafford; George J. Walsh, New Britain; John H. Trumbull, Plainville; William J. Malone, Bristol; Daniel M. Cronin, New London; Wilson S. Reynolds, Middletown; E. J. Lyons, Meriden; R. H. Woodruff, New Haven; Frederick L. Lamson, Norwalk; Alfred C. Baldwin, Derby; Edgar L. Pond, Plymouth.

Guests.
Robert O. Eaton, North Haven; Charles A. Gates, Willimantic; Louis R. Cheney, Hartford; Alton Farrell, Ansonia; Harry V. Burke, Manchester; Everett J. Lark, Hartford; Charles M. Bakewell, New Haven; Louis Ullman, Meriden; Benedit M. Holden, Hartford; New Haven; Daniel J. Donovan, Meriden; John Brooks, Torrington; Frederick S. Gentry, Edward N. Allen, Hartford; J. Chase, Waterbury; John P. Elton, Waterbury; New Haven; Clarence H. Wickham, Hartford; Andrew J. Sloper, New Britain; Charles F. Smith, New Britain; Theodore Bodenweiser, New London; T. McDonald Russell, Middletown; James P. Madams, Meriden; Samuel A. Davis, Danbury; Andrew S. Shepard, Portland; J. J. Muzzey, Bristol; George Frank A. Kaley, Willimantic; C. Denison Talcott, Rockville; Clarence G. Willard, New Haven; William V. Palmer, Willimantic; Theodore W. Wallen, Hartford; Harvey M. Briggs, Norwich.

Brandegee to Attend.
Senator Frank B. Brandegee expects to meet the delegation in Chicago and probably make the return trip on the special train, as he did four years ago.

Willard V. V. Brandegee, who has been appointed assistant sergeant-at-arms, he served similarly four years ago. Clarence G. Willard of New Haven is sergeant-at-arms.

Each member of the party will receive a gold American flag upon entering the train here Saturday afternoon. The delegation will not be called to order until the train has left Springfield; as it is possible that some of the delegates will go abroad during a brief stopover there.

W. E. SCHULTZ, TO BE TRIED.
ESCAPEE FROM ASYLUM.
The June term of the superior court in this county is in session at Rockville. On the bench.

William E. Schultz, charged with breaking and entering John Kersevice, charged with aggravated assault, and Rose Welch, charged with larceny, the three cases were brought to trial Tuesday by States Attorney Thomas P. Neone.

Schultz was committed to Middletown house of asylum at the last session and it was just a month ago last Saturday that he escaped from that institution. He has gained a name from the fact that he broke jail at Rockville. He is credited with breaking into nearly fifty cottages at Coventry, Columbia and Crystal Lake. He is now credited with breaking into the New London State Hospital and from Middletown State Asylum for the Insane. It is thought that he is in this locality as several cottages near Rockville have been broken into recently. He has a mania for breaking into cottages and does no other harm than to be a pest and sleep well. The state police have been on his trail for several weeks.
